Nigel Palmer Joins VJ Electronix as Western Regional Sales Manager

October 2015 — VJ Electronix, Inc., the leader in rework technologies and global provider of advanced X-ray inspection systems, is pleased to announce the addition of Nigel Palmer as its new Western Regional Sales Manager.

Mr. Palmer is the most recent addition to the VJ Electronix sales team. Stationed in Beaverton OR, he will be responsible for sales of VJ Electronix rework and X-ray products in the U.S., from the Rocky Mountains to the Pacific Ocean.

“Nigel started as a customer back in the 1990’s.” explains VJ Electronix Director of Sales, Ron Lindell. “His technical background and SMT process knowledge will help us deliver the best solutions to our customers’ diverse challenges.”

Palmer began as an Electrical Engineer with Dage Precima Ltd. /Dynapert in England. He later worked as a Sr. Staff Engineer at Jabil Circuits and Engineering Manager at Vanguard. Palmer later turned his focus toward customer support, with roles at Philips Assembleon America, Matrix/FocalSpot and Panasonic. Most recently, he sold for VJ Electronix as a manufacturers’ representative in the Pacific Northwest.
