VJ Electronix Announces New Eastern Regional Sales Manager for the Americas

June 2018 — VJ Electronix, Inc., a leading global provider of advanced X-ray inspection, component counting systems and PCB rework technologies, today announced the promotion of Robert Kerwin to Eastern Regional Sales Manager for the Americas. In this capacity, Kerwin will be responsible for the VJE sales activity in the eastern half of the US, Canada (except British Columbia), Mexico (except Baja) and South America.

“VJ Electronix is committed to providing world-class application/technical support and training,” commented Ron Lindell, VJE Global Sales Manager. “We are proud of our ability to promote from within. Please join me in wishing Robert much success in his new role.”

Kerwin joined VJE in 2006 as Global Customer Support Manager. He has strong technical and applications knowledge of all of VJE’s rework and X-ray products and the VJE customer base.

Additionally, Kerwin brings to this position sales experience from previous sales roles at Atrenta Inc. and Magma Automation Design Inc. He is based out of VJE’s Chelmsford, MA headquarters.
